

Central Missouri Celtic Arts Association

presents

Ed Miller

Songs of Scotland

Sunday, October 13

From old traditional ballads and the timeless songs of Robert Burns, to contemporary songs of urban change, emigration, nationalism and humor, a performance by Miller gives a real taste of Scotland and shows his continuing love for his homeland.

"Hearing Ed Miller is like picking up a book of favorite short stories. Even though the characters are familiar and you remember the basic plots, the telling itself is worth hearing time after time."

L. E. McCullough, Austin Chronicle

"Here is a mixture of traditional and contemporary songs woven into a seamless garment by a singer who respects style and clarity."

Sheila Douglas, The Living Tradition

For more info about this and other events/activities offered by CMCAA, see

www.moceltic.org or call Kate Akers at 442-2048

Sunday, October 13, 7:00 p.m.

Cherry Street Artisan

Corner of Ninth & Cherry in downtown Columbia

Tickets at the door - $10 public / $8 CMCAA and MU Celtic Club members. Kids 14 & under attend free.

You can also purchase tickets at Tiger Tales Books, Graham and Taylor and Streetside Records.